

Lesson 2: The D Scale

Play the D scale forward and backward. To start, pick each note eight times. Then gradually decrease the number of times you pick each note until you can play it as written. Keep it steady!

1.

d e f# g a b c# d
Do Re Mi Fa So La Ti Do

★ Ready for a challenge? Here's another way to practise the D scale:

2.

EIGHTH NOTE (1/2 BEAT) e QUARTER REST (1 BEAT)

Keep your left thumb behind the neck of your uke to support your fingers.
Press until you get a clean, clear sound.
